Pullman Parks and Recreation
FOUNDATION

SPRING 2027 · LINCOLN MIDDLE SCHOOL STUDENTS

Keep the Teen Center open

A free, safe place to go after school at the Pullman Rec Center. Its funding runs out in December. $6,897 keeps it open every school day, January 4 to June 10.

39
students registered this fall

10 to 15
kids every afternoon, 3:30 to 5:00

104
afternoons this spring

WHAT HAPPENS THERE

A coordinator the kids trust runs cooking projects, guest speakers, movies, games, and gym time, with a snack every day.

City budget cuts mean Parks and Recreation can no longer cover it. Without community support, it closes in January.

WHAT YOUR GIFT DOES

$25 snacks and supplies for two afternoons

$66 one full afternoon, staff and snacks

$330 a full week of Teen Center

Any amount adds up fast

> We have seen our biggest numbers yet for this fall.
>
> Megan Vining, Recreation Manager, Pullman Parks and Recreation

HOW TO GIVE

Pledge by December 15 by email or phone with your name and amount. Payment due January 7.

Gifts go to the Foundation, not the City, so every dollar stays with the Teen Center. We will confirm payment details before January 7.

CONTACT

Jordan Vorderbrueggen
Treasurer · 509.288.0082
info@pullmanparksandrecfoundation.org
pullmanparksandrecfoundation.org

Learn more

Pullman Parks and Recreation Foundation is a Washington nonprofit corporation (UBI 606 314 698, EIN 43 2682645). Its application for recognition as a 501(c)(3) public charity was filed with the IRS on October 28, 2026 and is pending. Once granted, recognition generally applies back to the date of incorporation. Please consult your tax advisor about deductibility.